Prof. John C Jacob joined the faculty at St. Joseph's College, Devagiri in Kozhikode. In 1965 he joined Payyanur College and Eventually he headed up the Zoology Department where he worked until he retired in 1992.

At Payyanur, in 1972 he started a zoology club that would form the genesis of campus-based nature conservation activities.

The club also became involved in protesting threats to the environment. He also set up the Society for Environment Education, Kerala (SEEK), which published an environment-focused magazine Soochimukhi. Additionally, Jacob led the movement against the Silent Valley project in South Kerala.
